PARKS & RECREATION
1985 Article Index

Subject Index

ARTS
Performing Arts and the Handicapped: A Guide to Participation, Ladd Colston and Mary Francis Pearson, September, page 64.

AQUATICS
Emergency Procedures for Aquatic Facilities, Allen R. Wagner, April. page 56.
From Recreation Club Pool to the Olympics: An Interview with Tracie Ruiz, April, page 51.
Public Water Play Parks—The Ol' Swimming Hole Revisited, Claude Thompson, April, page 42.
South Carolina Swimming Pool Operators Plunge Into Training, James R. Pope, Jr., April, page 48.
Who Says You Can't Surf Colorado? A $2.5 Million Success Story, Greg Mastriona, April, page 60.

CITIZEN INVOLVEMENT
Key Communicators Create Community Understanding, B. Nick DiGrino, March, page 60.

COMMUNICATION
Key Communicators Create Community Understanding, B. Nick DiGrino, March, page 60.

COMPUTERS
Is There an Automated Maintenance System in Your Future?, Thomas Yacko and Dennis Taylor, February, page 34.

CONGRESS FOR RECREATION AND PARKS
Congress 1984: A Challenging and Optimistic Future, January, page 36.
1985 Congress: Leisure and Learning in the Heart of Dallas, September, page 36.
Dallas: Site of Culture, Cowboys, and the 1985 Congress, June, page 32.

CONSERVATION
Is Industry Poisoning the Forests? "Acidity is Not the Major Factor", Alan W. Katzenstein, January, page 88.
Is Industry Poisoning the Forests? "We Must Take Prompt Action", Gene E. Likens, January, page 88.
Land Trusts: A Key Link in the Conservation Chain, Benjamin R. Emory, November, page 44.
Wildlife Planning in Parks—A Continuing Challenge, Bryan P. Shissler and Mark E. Holman, November, page 28.

COOPERATIVE EFFORTS
Put Blame Where It Belongs—On Someone Else, Susan M. Morrison and Dr. Calvin Lathen, May, page 66.

EDITORIAL
Building a Better Tomorrow . . . Together, February, page 26.
Critical Days of June, The, June, page 22.
Critical Trend: Legal Literacy, A, May, page 34.
Four Dimensions of Recreation, October, page 36.
Improving the Quality of Life: A Call for Public-Private Partnerships, July, page 32.
Involvement in the Presidential Commission, April, page 40.
Joining the Fight, March, page 46.
Leadership Now: An Opportunity for Creative State Action, September, page 34.
Playground Movement Celebrates 100 Years, The, August, page 34.
Resource Protection: The Need for Continuing Vigilance, November, page 26.
Revenue Management at the Crossroads, December, page 30.
Russell Dickenson: A Very Good Man Steps Down, January, page 34.

EDUCATION
ABCs of Accreditation, The, John P. Dattilo and William D. Murphy, September, page 62.
Barriers Are More Than Architectural, Ralph W. Smith, October, page 58.
Delphi Approach to Curriculum Planning, A, Gary Ellis, Kristen Smith, and William G. Kummer, September, page 52.
Liberal Education: The Foundation for Prepared Professionals, Charles Sylvester, Ronald D. Riggins, and James E. Moore, November, page 52.
National Standard for Outdoor Leadership Certification, A, David Cockrell and Jude LaFollette, June, page 40.
Needs Assessment in Urban Recreation—A University's Role, Richard Kraus and Nathaniel Washington, July, page 40.
SPRE Survey: Park and Recreation Enrollment Stabilizes, The 1984, Richard Gitelson, April, page 64.

EVALUATION
Delphi Approach to Curriculum Planning, A, Gary Ellis, Kristen Smith, and William G. Kummer, September, page 52.

FACILITY PLANNING AND DESIGN
Cut Landscape Maintenance Costs by Proper Design, Robert O. Brickman, February, page 28.
Designing for Tots: The View from the Bottom Up, Stephen Lopez, February, page 54.
How Facility Design Can Challenge the Disabled to Greater Confidence, Mark B. Mitchell, October, page 38.
Welcome to Tokyo: Human Services and Landscaped Beauty, Joseph E. Curtis, February, page 42.

FINANCE AND BUDGET
Beyond Fees and Charges: The Need for a Pricing Strategy, Sarah Jones Tugman, December, page 50.
Privatization Nets Multiple Returns in West Lafayette, Roger L. Beaver, December, page 40.
Revenue Management: Beginning with the Basics, Stan A. Hemphill, December, page 32.
Six Steps to Soliciting Corporate Support, John Crompton, December, page 44.

PARKS & RECREATION
1985 Article Index

Subject Index

ARTS
Performing Arts and the Handicapped: A Guide to Participation, Ladd Colston and Mary Francis Pearson, September, page 64.

AQUATICS
Emergency Procedures for Aquatic Facilities, Allen R. Wagner, April. page 56.
From Recreation Club Pool to the Olympics: An Interview with Tracie Ruiz, April, page 51.
Public Water Play Parks—The Ol' Swimming Hole Revisited, Claude Thompson, April, page 42.
South Carolina Swimming Pool Operators Plunge Into Training, James R. Pope, Jr., April, page 48.
Who Says You Can't Surf Colorado? A $2.5 Million Success Story, Greg Mastriona, April, page 60.

CITIZEN INVOLVEMENT
Key Communicators Create Community Understanding, B. Nick DiGrino, March, page 60.

COMMUNICATION
Key Communicators Create Community Understanding, B. Nick DiGrino, March, page 60.

COMPUTERS
Is There an Automated Maintenance System in Your Future?, Thomas Yacko and Dennis Taylor, February, page 34.

CONGRESS FOR RECREATION AND PARKS
Congress 1984: A Challenging and Optimistic Future, January, page 36.
1985 Congress: Leisure and Learning in the Heart of Dallas, September, page 36.
Dallas: Site of Culture, Cowboys, and the 1985 Congress, June, page 32.

CONSERVATION
Is Industry Poisoning the Forests? "Acidity is Not the Major Factor", Alan W. Katzenstein, January, page 88.
Is Industry Poisoning the Forests? "We Must Take Prompt Action", Gene E. Likens, January, page 88.
Land Trusts: A Key Link in the Conservation Chain, Benjamin R. Emory, November, page 44.
Wildlife Planning in Parks—A Continuing Challenge, Bryan P. Shissler and Mark E. Holman, November, page 28.

COOPERATIVE EFFORTS
Put Blame Where It Belongs—On Someone Else, Susan M. Morrison and Dr. Calvin Lathen, May, page 66.

EDITORIAL
Building a Better Tomorrow . . . Together, February, page 26.
Critical Days of June, The, June, page 22.
Critical Trend: Legal Literacy, A, May, page 34.
Four Dimensions of Recreation, October, page 36.
Improving the Quality of Life: A Call for Public-Private Partnerships, July, page 32.
Involvement in the Presidential Commission, April, page 40.
Joining the Fight, March, page 46.
Leadership Now: An Opportunity for Creative State Action, September, page 34.
Playground Movement Celebrates 100 Years, The, August, page 34.
Resource Protection: The Need for Continuing Vigilance, November, page 26.
Revenue Management at the Crossroads, December, page 30.
Russell Dickenson: A Very Good Man Steps Down, January, page 34.

EDUCATION
ABCs of Accreditation, The, John P. Dattilo and William D. Murphy, September, page 62.
Barriers Are More Than Architectural, Ralph W. Smith, October, page 58.
Delphi Approach to Curriculum Planning, A, Gary Ellis, Kristen Smith, and William G. Kummer, September, page 52.
Liberal Education: The Foundation for Prepared Professionals, Charles Sylvester, Ronald D. Riggins, and James E. Moore, November, page 52.
National Standard for Outdoor Leadership Certification, A, David Cockrell and Jude LaFollette, June, page 40.
Needs Assessment in Urban Recreation—A University's Role, Richard Kraus and Nathaniel Washington, July, page 40.
SPRE Survey: Park and Recreation Enrollment Stabilizes, The 1984, Richard Gitelson, April, page 64.

EVALUATION
Delphi Approach to Curriculum Planning, A, Gary Ellis, Kristen Smith, and William G. Kummer, September, page 52.

FACILITY PLANNING AND DESIGN
Cut Landscape Maintenance Costs by Proper Design, Robert O. Brickman, February, page 28.
Designing for Tots: The View from the Bottom Up, Stephen Lopez, February, page 54.
How Facility Design Can Challenge the Disabled to Greater Confidence, Mark B. Mitchell, October, page 38.
Welcome to Tokyo: Human Services and Landscaped Beauty, Joseph E. Curtis, February, page 42.

FINANCE AND BUDGET
Beyond Fees and Charges: The Need for a Pricing Strategy, Sarah Jones Tugman, December, page 50.
Privatization Nets Multiple Returns in West Lafayette, Roger L. Beaver, December, page 40.
Revenue Management: Beginning with the Basics, Stan A. Hemphill, December, page 32.
Six Steps to Soliciting Corporate Support, John Crompton, December, page 44.

FITNESS
City Parks: Untapped Resource for Fitness, Frances Caldwell, December, page 54.
Hershey's Decade of Growth: An Interview with Don Cohen, June, page 44.
Youth Fitness Revisited—Part II, James G. Ross, Charles O. Dotson, and Glen G. Gilbert, January, page 80.

FUTURE
"Managing Our Way to a Preferred Future" . . . Continued, Frank Benest, Jack Foley, and George Welton, November, page 48.
One Small Step for Man, One Leap for Recreation, C. Newton Wilkes, Mark Maneval, and J. Larry Ladner, January, page 64.

HISTORIC PRESERVATION
Prospect Park, Rebuilding the Past for the Future, Tupper Thomas and Paul C. Berizzi, June, page 24.

HISTORY
Boston Sand Garden Kicks Off the Playground Movement, A, Linda Oliva, August, page 36.
From Playgrounds to Public Policy, Charles E. Hartsoe, August, page 46.
1906: A Pivotal Year for the Playground Profession, Jerry G. Dickason, August, page 40.
Professionalization—The Saga Continues, Donald Henkle, August, page 50.

INDOOR RECREATION
Church Recreation: A Ministerial Aid, Dr. Robert Raus, October, page 50.
How Facility Design Can Challenge the Disabled to Greater Confidence, Mark B. Mitchell, October, page 38.
Programming for All Ages, Adah Parker Strobell, Judith Leblien, Jeff Williams, Mary Ka Nippard, and Virginia L. Carson, October, page 44.

INTERNATIONAL RECREATION
Recreation Among the Oil Wells: Saudi Arabia Develops Its Leisure Services, Benjamin K. Hunnicutt, July, page 50.
Worldwide Perspective on Playgrounds, A, Cor Westland, August, page 55.

INTERVIEWS
Hershey's Decade of Growth: An Interview with Don Cohen, June, page 44.
Interview with Representative Bruce Vento, An, July, page 56.
Interview with William Penn Mott, An, November, page 34.
Trends in Playground Equipment: Interviews with Four Top Manufacturers, August, page 60.

LAND USE
Birds vs. Ball Fields, Do the Birds Lose? Timothy B. Knopp, June, page 37.
Hidden Agendas in Wilderness Management, Craig Allin, May, page 62.
Trends in Land Use, James D. Mertes, May, page 46.

LEGISLATION/PUBLIC AWARENESS
Interview with Representative Bruce Vento, An, July, page 56.

LEISURE EDUCATION
Leisure Education Programs for the Severely Disabled, Stuart J. Schleien, Barbara Tuckner, and Linda Heyne, January, page 74.

LIABILITY
All Aboard the Roller Coaster: Parks Welcome Handicapped Riders, Susan E. Morton, May, page 36.
Safety Is No Accident, Monty L. Christiansen, May, page 52.
Trends in Land Use, James D. Mertes, May, page 46.
Trends in Personal Injury Suits, Betty van der Smissen, May, page 57.
Negligence in Visitor Security, William O. Dwyer and Dan S. Murrell, January, page 68.
What Can You Ask an Applicant?, Frank B. Guadagnola and Patricia Farrell, May, page 42.

MAINTENANCE
Cut Landscape Maintenance Costs by Proper Design, Robert O. Brickman, February, page 28.
Is There an Automated Maintenance System in Your Future?, Thomas Yacko and Dennis Taylor, February, page 34.

MANAGEMENT
Contracting Out, Is It for Your Agency?, Allan C. Rusten, February, page 32.
"Managing Our Way to a Preferred Future" . . . Continued, Frank Benest, Jack Foley and George Welton, November, page 48.
One Approach to Contracting Out Services, Ralph S. Cryder, February, page 40.
Put Blame Where It Belongs—On Someone Else, Susan M. Morrison and Dr. Calvin Lathen, May, page 66.

MARKETING
Key Communicators Create Community Understanding, B. Nick DiGrino, March, page 60.

NRPA LAW REVIEW
Case of Lifeguard Law from the Old Dominion, A, November, page 20.
Christmas Carol in the Park from the Supremes, A, June, page 16.
High Risk Recreation Product Liability Case Study, February, page 22.
Looking at Plate Glass Safety from Two Angles, July, page 22.
Municipal Liability on Other Side of Hole in City Fence?, October, page 30.
Referee Malpractice, Hard Driving Volunteer, & Pygmy Palm Interference, August, page 26.
Restaurant in Central Park: A Diversion Case Study, The, April, page 34.
Retention Pond Drowning Case Studies, March, page 38.
Texas Court Holds No Duty to Provide CPR in Playground Death, September, page 20.
Unauthorized Use of the Term "Olympic"; Much Ado About Nothing?, May, page 26.
Walt's World in Litigation Land, January, page 28.
Written Supervision Standard Not Followed in Golf Mishap, December, page 20.

PARK DEVELOPMENT/PLANNING
Planning an Outdoor Play Park, Kathy R. Thornburg, Leon Snyder, Anne Doumit Sparks, and Mary Jo Herde, March, page 52.

PERSONNEL
Recruiting Youth Sports Personnel, Eugene Brown, March, page 65.
What Can You Ask an Applicant?, Frank B. Guadagnola and Patricia Farrell, May, page 42.

PLAY
Designing for Tots: The View from the Bottom Up, Stephen Lopez, February, page 54.
Planning an Outdoor Play Park, Kathy R. Thornburg, Leon Snyder, Anne Doumit Sparks, and Mary Jo Herde, March, page 52.

PLAYGROUNDS
Boston Sand Garden Kicks Off the Playground Movement, A, Linda Oliva, August, page 36.
Designing for Tots: The View from the Bottom Up, Stephen Lopez, February, page 54.
From Playgrounds to Public Policy, Charles E. Hartsoe, August, page 46.
1906: A Pivotal Year for the Playground Profession, Jerry G. Dickason, August, page 40.
Planning an Outdoor Play Park, Kathy R. Thornburg, Leon Snyder, Anne Doumit Sparks, and Mary Jo Herde, March, page 52.
Trends in Playground Equipment: Interviews with Four Top Manufacturers, August, page 60.
Worldwide Perspective on Playgrounds, A, Cor Westland, August, page 55.

PROFESSIONALISM
National Standard for Outdoor Leadership Certification, A, David Cockrell and Jude LaFollette, June, page 40.
Professionalization—The Saga Continues, Donald Henkle, August, page 50.

PROGRAMMING
Birds vs. Ball Fields, Do the Birds Lose? Timothy B. Knopp, June, page 37.
Church Recreation: A Ministerial Aid, Dr. Robert Raus, October, page 50.
Haunted Forest: A Solution to the No Facility Problem, Linda J. Hook, September, page 67.
Hershey's Decade of Growth: An Interview with Don Cohen, June, page 44.
Injury Countermeasures in Outdoor Adventure Programs, Dr. Joel Meier, April, page 70.
Leisure Education Programs for the Severely Disabled, Stuart J. Schleien, Barbara Tuckner, and Linda Heyne, January, page 74.
New Generation Goes to the Birds, A, David Catlin, March, page 56.
Performing Arts and the Handicapped: A Guide to Participation, Ladd Colston and Mary Francis Pearson, September, page 64.
Programming for All Ages, Adah Parker Strobell, Judith Leblein, Jeff Williams, Mary Ka Nippard, and Virginia L. Carson, October, page 44.
Rediscovering the Birds and Bees: A Day Camp for Seniors, Carol Cutler Riddick and Joan L. Quinn, February, page 51.
Women Outdoors: Who Are They?, Rita Yerkes and Wilma Miranda, March, page 48.

RECREATION RESOURCES
Interview with William Penn Mott, An, November, page 34.
Land Trusts: A Key Link in the Conservation Chain, Benjamin R. Emory, November, page 44.
Wildlife Planning in Parks—A Continuing Challenge, Bryan P. Shissler and Mark E. Holman, November, page 28.

RESOURCE MANAGEMENT
Birds vs. Ball Fields, Do the Birds Lose? Timothy B. Knopp, June, page 37.
Hidden Agendas in Wilderness Management, Craig Allin, May, page 62.
Interview with William Penn Mott, An, November, page 34.
Land Trusts: A Key Link in the Conservation Chain, Benjamin R. Emory, November, page 44.
Wildlife Planning in Parks—A Continuing Challenge, Bryan P. Shissler and Mark E. Holman, November, page 28.

SAFETY AND HEALTH
Injury Countermeasures in Outdoor Adventure Programs, Dr. Joel Meier, April, page 70.
Preventing Child Abuse in Parks and Recreation Areas, Terry K. Holcomb and Linda M. Williams, September, page 58.
Safety Is No Accident, Monty L. Christiansen, May, page 52.

SPECIAL POPUALTIONS
All Aboard the Roller Coaster: Parks Welcome Handicapped Riders, Susan E. Morton, May, page 36.
Barriers Are More Than Architectural, Ralph W. Smith, October, page 58.
How Facility Design Can Challenge the Disabled to Greater Confidence, Mark B. Mitchell, October, page 38.
Leisure Education Programs for the Severely Disabled, Stuart J. Schleien, Barbara Tuckner, and Linda Heyne, January, page 74.
Performing Arts and the Handicapped: A Guide to Participation, Ladd Colston and Mary Francis Pearson, September, page 64.
Rediscovering the Birds and Bees: A Day Camp for Seniors, Carol Cutler Riddick and Joan L. Quinn, February, page 51.

SPORTS
Making Youth Sports Fun for Kids—NYSCA's Campaign '85, March, page 62.
Recruiting Youth Sports Personnel, Eugene Brown, March, page 65.
Women Outdoors: Who Are They?, Rita Yerkes and Wilma Miranda, March, page 48.

TRENDS
All Aboard the Roller Coaster: Parks Welcome Handicapped Riders, Susan E. Morton, May, page 36.
Safety Is No Accident, Monty L. Christiansen, May, page 52.
Trends in Land Use, James D. Mertes, May, page 46.
Trends in Personal Injury Suits, Betty van der Smissen, May, page 57.
Trends in Playground Equipment: Interviews with Four Top Manufacturers, August, page 60.
What Can You Ask an Applicant?, Frank B. Guadagnola and Patricia Farrell, May, page 42.

URBAN PARKS/RECREATION
City Parks: Untapped Resource for Fitness, Frances Caldwell, December, page 54.
Needs Assessment in Urban Recreation—A University's Role, Richard Kraus and Nathaniel Washington, July, page 40.
New Era for Urban Recreation: Cleveland's Recovery, A, Cathy Connelly, July, page 46.
Taking Stock in the Cities: A Regional Urban Recreation Conference, Richard Kraus, Ira Shapiro, and Lawrence Allen, July, page 34.
Welcome to Tokyo: Human Services and Landscaped Beauty, Joseph E. Curtis, February, page 42.

VIEWPOINT
"Managing Our Way to a Preferred Future" . . . Continued, Frank Benest, Jack Foley, and George Welton, November, page 48.
To Feed or Not Feed the Bears: The Moral Choices We Make, Daniel L. Dustin, October, page 54.

WASHINGTON SCENE
Appropriations, New Authorities Fill Congressional Schedule, May, page 12.
Board Approves Policy Program Goals for the 99th Congress, January, page 18.
Congress Ready for Fall Agenda, October, page 14.
Issues Take Shape as Congress Reaches Mid-Session, June, page 12.
Legislation: A Status Report on Selected Issues as Congress Takes an August Break, August, page 16.
Ninety-ninth Congress Begins, The, March, page 24.
Policy Review Set, National Recreation Budget Tight, April, page 18.
Recreation Issues Remain as Congress Returns, September, page 12.
State, Local Interests Featured in Congressional Actions, November, page 16.
Trustees Adopt Three Policy Statements, July, page 12.
Updates on Government Activities, February, page 16.

Authors Index

Allen, Lawrence, Taking Stock in the Cities: A Regional Urban Recreation Conference, July, page 34.
Allin, Craig, Hidden Agendas in Wilderness Management, May, page 62.
Beaver, Roger L., Privatization Nets Multiple Returns in West Lafayette, December, page 40.
Benest, Frank, "Managing Our Way to a Preferred Future" . . . Continued, November, page 48.
Berizzi, Paul C., Prospect Park, Rebuilding the Past for the Future, June, page 24.
Brickman, Robert O., Cut Landscape Maintenance Costs by Proper Design, February, page 28.
Brown, Eugene, Recruiting Youth Sports Personnel, March, page 65.
Caldwell, Frances, City Parks: Untapped Resource for Fitness, December, page 54.
Carson, Virginia L., Programming for All Ages, October, page 44.

Catlin, David, A New Generation Goes to the Birds, March, page 56.
Christiansen, Monty L., Safety Is No Accident, May, page 52.
Cockrell, David, A National Standard for Outdoor Leadership Certification, June, page 40.
Colston, Ladd, Performing Arts and the Handicapped: A Guide to Participation, September, page 64.
Connelly, Cathy E., A New Era for Urban Recreation: Cleveland's Recovery, July, page 46.
Crompton, John, Six Steps to Soliciting Corporate Support, December, page 44.
Cryder, Ralph S., One Approach to Contracting Out Services, February, page 40.
Curtis, Joseph E., Welcome to Tokyo: Human Services and Landscaped Beauty, February, page 42.
Dickason, Jerry G., 1906: A Pivotal Year for the Playground Profession, August, page 40.
Dotson, Charles O., Youth Fitness Revisited—Part II, January, page 80.
Dustin, Daniel L., To Feed or Not Feed the Bears: The Moral Choices We Make, October, page 54.
Dwyer, William O., Negligence in Visitor Security, January, page 68.
Ellis, Gary, A Delphi Approach to Curriculum Planning, September, page 52.
Emory, Benjamin R., Land Trusts: A Key Line in the Conservation Chain, November, page 44.
Farrell, Patricia, What Can You Ask an Applicant?, May, page 42.
Foley, Jack, "Managing Our Way to a Preferred Future" . . . Continued, November, page 48.
Gilbert, Glen G., Youth Fitness Revisited—Part II, January, page 80.
Gitelson, Richard, The 1984 SPRE Survey: Park and Recreation Enrollment Stabilizes, April, page 64.
Guadagnola, Frank B., What Can You Ask an Applicant?, May, page 42.
Hartsoe, Charles E., From Playgrounds to Public Policy, August, page 46.
Hemphill, Stan, Revenue Management: Beginning with the Basics, December, page 32.
Henkel, Donald, Professionalization—The Saga Continues, August, page 50.
Herde, Mary Jo, Planning an Outdoor Play Park, March, page 52.
Heyne, Linda, Leisure Education Programs for the Severely Disabled, January, page 74.
Holcomb, Terry J., Preventing Child Abuse in Park and Recreation Areas, September, page 58.
Holman, Mark E., Wildlife Planning in Parks—A Continuing Challenge, November, page 28.
Hook Linda, J., Haunted Forest: A Solution to the No Facility Problem, September, page 67.
Hunnicutt, Benjamin K., Recreation Among the Oil Wells: Saudi Arabia Develops Its Leisure Services, July, page 50.
Katzenstein, Alan W., Acidity is Not the Major Factor, January, page 88.
Knopp, Timothy B., Birds vs. Ball Fields, Do the Birds Lose?, June, page 37.
Kraus, Richard, Needs Assessment in Urban Recreation—A University's Role, July, page 40.
Kraus, Richard, Taking Stock in the Cities: A Regional Urban Recreation Conference, July, page 34.
Kummer, William G., A Delphi Approach to Curriculum Planning, September, page 52.
Ladner, J. Larry, One Small Step for Man, One Leap for Recreation, January, page 64.
LaFollette, Jude, A National Standard for Outdoor Leadership Certification, June, page 40.
Lathen, Calvin Dr., Put Blame Where It Belongs—On Someone Else, May, page 66.
Leblein, Judith, Programming for All Ages, October, page 44.
Likens, Gene E., "We Must Take Prompt Action," January, page 88.
Lopez, Stephen, Designing for Tots: The View from the Bottom Up, February, page 54.
Maneval, Mark, One Small Step for Man, One Leap for Recreation, January, page 64.
Mastriona, Greg, Who Says You Can't Surf Colorado? A $2.5 Million Success Story, April, page 60.
Meier, Joel Dr., Injury Countermeasures in Outdoor Adventure Programs, April, page 70.
Mertes, James D., Trends in Land Use, May, page 46.
Miranda, Wilma, Women Outdoors: Who Are They?, March, page 48.
Mitchell, Mark B., How Facility Design Can Challenge the Disabled to Greater Confidence, October, page 38.
Moore, James E., Liberal Education: The Foundation for Prepared Professionals, November, page 52.
Morrison, Susan M., Put Blame Where It Belongs—on Someone Else, May, page 66.
Morton, Susan E., All Aboard the Roller Coaster: Parks Welcome Handicapped Riders, May, page 36.
Murrell Dan S., Negligence in Visitor Security, January, page 68.
Nippard, Mary Ka, Programming for All Ages, October, page 44.
Oliva, Linda, A Boston Sand Garden Kicks Off the Playground Movement, August, page 36.
Pearson, Mary Francis, Performing Arts and the Handicapped: A Guide to Participation, September, page 64.
Pope, James R. Jr., South Carolina Swimming Pool Operators Plunge Into Training, April, page 48.
Quinn, Joan L., Rediscovering the Birds and Bees: A Day Camp for Seniors, February, page 51.
Raus, Robert Dr., Church Recreation: A Ministerial Aid, October, page 50.
Riddick, Carol Cutler, Rediscovering the Birds and Bees: A Day Camp for Seniors, February, page 51.
Riggins, Ronald D., Liberal Education: The Foundation for Prepared Professionals, November, page 52.
Ross, James G., Youth Fitness Revisited-Part II, January, page 80.
Rusten, Allan C., Contracting Out, Is It for Your Agency?, February, page 32.
Schleien, Stuart J., Leisure Education Programs for the Severely Disabled, January, page 74.
Shapiro, Ira, Taking Stock in the Cities: A Regional Urban Recreation Conference, July, page 34.
Shissler, Bryan P., Wildlife Planning in Parks—A Continuing Challenge, November, page 28.
Smith, Kristen, A Delphi Approach to Curriculum Planning, September, page 52.
Smith, Ralph W., Barriers Are More Than Architectural, October, page 58.
Snyder, Leon, Planning an Outdoor Play Park, March, page 52.
Sparks, Anne Doumit, Planning an Outdoor Play Park, March, page 52.
Strobell, Adah Parker, Programming for All Ages, October, page 44.
Sylvester, Charles, Liberal Education: The Foundation for Prepared Professionals, November, page 52.
Taylor, Dennis, Is There an Automated Maintenance System in Your Future?, February, page 34.
Thomas, Tupper, Prospect Park, Rebuilding the Past for the Future, June, page 24.
Thompson, Claude, Public Water Play Parks—The Ol' Swimming Hole Revisited, April, page 42.
Thornburg, Kathy R., Planning an Outdoor Play Park, March, page 52.
Tuckner, Barbara, Leisure Education Programs for the Severely Disabled, January, page 74.
Tugman, Sarah Jones, Beyond Fees and Charges: The Need for a Pricing Strategy, December, page 50.
van der Smissen, Betty, Trends in Personal Injury Suits, May, page 57.
Wagner, Allen R., Emergency Procedures for Aquatic Facilities, April, page 56.
Washington, Nathaniel, Needs Assessment in Urban Recreation—A University's Role, July, page 40.
Welton, George, "Managing Our Way to a Preferred Future" . . . Continued, November, page 48.
Westland, Cor, A Worldwide Perspective on Playgrounds, August, page 55.
Wilkes, C. Newton, One Small Leap for Man, One Leap for Recreation, January, page 64.
Williams, Jeff, Programming for All Ages, October, page 44.
Williams, Linda M., Preventing Child Abuse in Parks and Recreation Areas, September, page 58.
Yacko, Thomas, Is There an Automated Maintenance System in Your Future?, February, page 34.
Yerkes, Rita, Women Outdoors: Who Are They?, March, page 48.

Title Index

ABCs of Accreditation, The, John P. Dattilo and William D. Murphy, September, page 62.
All Aboard the Roller Coaster: Parks Welcome Handicapped Riders, Susan E. Morton, May, page 36.
Barriers Are More Than Architectural, Ralph W. Smith, October, page 58.
Beyond Fees and Charges: The Need for a Pricing Strategy, Sarah Jones Tugman, December, page 50.
Birds vs. Ball Fields, Do the Birds Lose? Timothy B. Knopp, June, page 37.
Boston Sand Garden Kicks Off the Playground Movement, A, Linda Oliva, August, page 36.
City Parks: Untapped Resource for Fitness, Frances Caldwell, December, page 54.
Church Recreation: A Ministerial Aid, Dr. Robert Raus, October, page 50.
Congress 1964: A Challenging and Optimistic Future, January, page 36.
1985 Congress: Leisure and Learning in the Heart of Dallas, September, page 36.
Contracting Out, Is It For Your Agency?, Allan C. Rusten, February, page 32.
Cut Landscape Maintenance Costs by Proper Design, Robert O. Brickman, February, page 28.
Dallas: Site of Culture, Cowboys, and the 1985 Congress, June page 32.
Delphi Approach to Curriculum Planning, A, Gary Ellis, Kristen Smith, and William G. Kummer, September, page 52.
Designing for Tots: The View from the Bottom Up, Stephen Lopez, February, page 54.
Emergency Procedures for Aquatic Facilities, Allen R. Wagner, April, page 56.
From Playgrounds to Public Policy, Charles E. Hartsoe, August, page 46.
From Recreation Club Pool to the Olympics: An Interview with Tracie Ruiz, April, page 51.
Haunted Forest: A Solution to the No Facility Problem, Linda J. Hook, September, page 67.
Hershey's Decade of Growth: An Interview with Don Cohen, June, page 44.
Hidden Agendas in Wilderness Management, Craig Allin, May, page 62.
How Facility Design Can Challenge the Disabled to Greater Confidence, Mark B. Mitchell, October, page 38.
Injury Countermeasures in Outdoor Adventure Programs, Dr. Joel Meier, April, page 70.
Interview with Representative Bruce Vento, An, July, page 56.
Interview with William Penn Mott, An, November, page 34.
Is Industry Poisoning the Forests? "Acidity is Not the Major Factor", Alan W. Katzenstein, January, page 88.
Is Industry Poisioning the Forests? "We Must Take Prompt Action", Gene E. Likens, January, page 88.
Is There an Automated Maintenance System in Your Future?, Thomas Yacko and Dennis Taylor, February, page 34.
Key Communicators Create Community Understanding, B. Nick DiGrino, March, page 60.
Land Trusts: A Key Link in the Conservation Chain, Benjamin R. Emory, November, page 44.
Leisure Education Programs for the Severely Disabled, Stuart J. Schleien, Barbara Tuckner, and Linda Heyne, January, page 74.
Liberal Education: The Foundation for Prepared Professionals, Charles Sylvester, Ronald D. Riggins, and James E. Moore, November, page 52.
Making Youth Sports Fun for Kids—NYSCA's Campaign '85, March, page 62.
"Managing Our Way to a Preferred Future" . . . Continued, Frank Benest, Jack Foley, and George Welton, November, page 48.
National Standard for Outdoor Leadership Certification, A, David Cockrell and Jude LaFollette, June, page 40.
Needs Assessment in Urban Recreation—A University's Role, Richard Kraus and Nathaniel Washington, July, page 40.
Negligence in Visitor Security, William O. Dwyer and Dan S. Murrell, January, page 68.
New Era for Urban Recreation: Cleveland's Recovery, A, Cathy E. Connelly, July, page 46.
New Generation Goes to the Birds, A, David Catlin, March page 56.
1906: A Pivotal Year for the Playground Profession, Jerry G. Dickason, August, page 40.
One Approach to Contracting Out Services, Ralph S. Cryder, February, page 40.
One Small Step for Man, One Leap for Recreation, C. Newton Wilkes, Mark Maneval, and J. Larry Ladner, January, page 64.
Performing Arts and the Handicapped: A Guide to Participation, Ladd Colston and Mary Francis Pearson, September, page 64.
Planning an Outdoor Play Park, Kathy R. Thornburg, Leon Snyder, Anne Doumit Sparks, and Mary Jo Herde, March, page 52.
Preventing Child Abuse in Parks and Recreation Areas, Terry J. Holcomb and Linda M. Williams, September, page 58.
Privatization Nets Multiple Returns in West Lafayette, Roger L. Beaver, December, page 40.
Professionalization—The Saga Continues, Donald Henkle, August, page 50.
Programming for All Ages, Adah Parker Strobell, Judith Leblein, Jeff Williams, Mary Ka Nippard, and Virginia L. Carson, October, page 44.
Prospect Park, Rebuilding the Past for the Future, Tupper Thomas and Paul C. Berizzi, June, page 24.
Public Water Play Parks—The Ol' Swimming Hole Revisited, Claude Thompson, April, page 42.
Put Blame Where It Belongs—On Someone Else, Susan M. Morrison and Dr. Calvin Lathen, May, page 66.
Recreation Among the Oil Wells: Saudi Arabia Develops Its Leisure Services, Benjamin K. Hunnicutt, July, page 50.
Recruiting Youth Sports Personnel, Eugene Brown, March, page 65.
Rediscovering the Birds and Bees: A Day Camp for Seniors, Carol Cutler Riddick and Joan L. Quinn, February, page 51.
Revenue Management: Beginning with the Basics, Stan A. Hemphill, December, page 32.
Safety Is No Accident, Monty L. Christiansen, May, page 52.
Six Steps to Soliciting Corporate Support, John Crompton, December, page 44.
South Carolina Swimming Pool Operators Plunge Into Training, James R. Pope, Jr., April, page 48.
SPRE Survey: Park and Recreation Enrollment Stabilizes, The 1984, Richard Gitelson, April, page 64.
Taking Stock in the Cities: A Regional Urban Recreation Conference, Richard Kraus, Ira Shapiro, and Lawrence Allen, July, page 34.
To Feed or Not Feed the Bears: The Moral Choices We Make, Daniel L. Dustin, October, page 54.
Trends in Land Use, James D. Mertes, May, page 46.
Trends in Personal Injury Suits, Betty van der Smissen, May, page 57.
Trends in Playground Equipment: Interviews with Four Top Manufacturers, August, page 60.
Welcome to Tokyo: Human Services and Landscaped Beauty, Joseph E. Curtis, February, page 42.
What Can You Ask an Applicant?, Frank B. Guadagnola and Patricia Farrell, May, page 42.
Who Says You Can't Surf Colorado? A $2.5 Million Success Story, Greg Mastriona, April, page 60.
Wildlife Planning in Parks—A Continuing Challenge, Bryan P. Shissler and Mark E. Holman, November, page 28.
Women Outdoors: Who Are They?, Rita Yerkes and Wilma Miranda, March, page 48.
Worldwide Perspective on Playgrounds, A, Cor Westland, August, page 55.
Youth Fitness Revisited—Part II, James G. Ross, Charles O. Dotson, and Glen G. Gilbert, January, page 80.